

Customer Complaints Charter

At Procure Smart Ltd, we pride ourselves on delivering an exceptional service to all our customers, however, we know that there will be times when we get things wrong. When this happens, we promise to take this seriously and aim to sort things out as quickly as possible.

If you're unhappy with our service for whatever reason then we'd like to understand why, so we can make every effort to put things right as quickly and effectively as possible.

Complaints are monitored by Procure Smart Ltd for training purposes and to ensure that we meet our company standards, as well as identifying areas where we can make improvements for the benefit of all our customers.

HOW DO I MAKE A COMPLAINT?

You can raise your complaint directly with your account manager, or by contacting the Customer Excellence Team.

Please let us know how you would like Procure Smart Ltd to communicate with you during the complaint and if you have any special requirements.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

We will deal with all complaints promptly, politely, and fairly. We aim to provide a high standard of service but, unfortunately, there may be times when we make a mistake. If this happens you are entitled to expect one, or a combination, of the following:

- An apology,
- An explanation,
- Details of the action we have taken to put things right,

An award of compensation in appropriate circumstances.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN NEXT?

5 BUSINESS DAYS - If we have been unable to resolve your complaint, within 5 business days after we have received it, we will write to you to acknowledge your complaint.

15 BUSINESS DAYS - In the majority of cases, we are able to resolve your complaint within 15 business days of receiving it.

If we have not resolved it within this time, we will contact you again to update you with our progress and tell you how much longer we anticipate it will take.

25 BUSINESS DAYS - If we have not been able to resolve your complaint within 25 business days, we will contact you again to update you with our progress and tell you how much longer we anticipate it will take.

40 BUSINESS DAYS - In exceptional circumstances, when your complaint is particularly complex, matters may take up to 8 weeks to resolve. If your complaint is not resolved, we will write to you requesting more time or send you a final response, known as a 'Deadlock' letter. For more complex issues that may take longer to resolve, you will be given updates with expected dates for response throughout our investigation.

WHAT IF I'M NOT SATISFIED WITH THE INITIAL RESPONSE?

If you are not satisfied with our initial response to your complaint, you can escalate this to a senior complaint handler. You can contact us by phone, email or in writing to the below address, asking for a review of the complaint by a senior complaint handler. Please state the reason for your dissatisfaction and include your customer reference.

MICROBUSINESS AND SMALL BUSINESS CUSTOMERS HAVE ADDITIONAL OPTIONS FOR COMPLAINTS BELOW

WHAT IF MY COMPLAINT STILL HASN'T BEEN RESOLVED?

If we can't reach a mutual agreement, we will send you a final response, known as 'Deadlock', which then allows you to seek independent advice from our registered dispute resolution provider. Also, if after 8 weeks a resolution hasn't been reached, you have the right to contact the provider. If you do decide to do this, you must contact them within 12 months of receiving our Deadlock letter. Our registered provider is Dispute Resolution Ombudsman (DRO), who will investigate your complaint independently.

We are bound to follow any decision that they make. To find out more about DRO and how you might be able to use their dispute resolution service, visit www.disputeresolutionombudsman.org or telephone 0333 241 3209.
